Information:

“Imp” is a well-trained show horse with all his smarts. This El Hilal grandson by a straight Spanish imported stallion is the famous Golden Cross, that is both Spanish and Egyptian. He is an absolute gentleman and his outstanding characteristic is his sweet personality. He is Dark Chocolate in color and has the rare “bloody shoulder”. He has minor scars from wire cuts, which do not affect his function in any way. He is so gentle he was used as a trainer’s lesson horse; he loves people and is good with other horses.
